

Setting Up Direct Deposit

Grow your checking or savings with direct deposits to your Santander® account.

Direct deposit

Direct deposit is a convenient way to have your paycheck electronically deposited into your checking or savings account by your employer.

Easier

Skip the wait for paper checks to arrive in the mail and the extra step of depositing them.

Safer

Enjoy added security without having to carry easy-to-lose paper checks.

Faster

Get your funds more quickly through regularly scheduled electronic deposits.

Simpler

Split direct deposits into multiple accounts to help you budget and manage your money.

Santander®

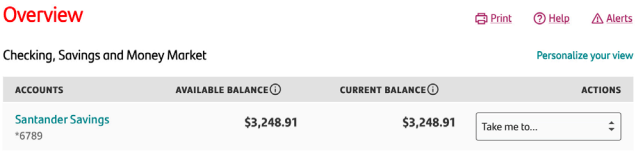

To set up direct deposit for your Santander account, you'll need to provide the depositor with:

- Your account number.
- Your routing number:
  - If your bank account number has 11 digits, the bank routing number is 011075150.
  - If your bank account number has 10 digits, the bank routing number is 231372691.
  - It can also be found on your checks, or under Account Info in Online and Mobile Banking.
- The amount from each payment to automatically deposit to your checking or savings account.

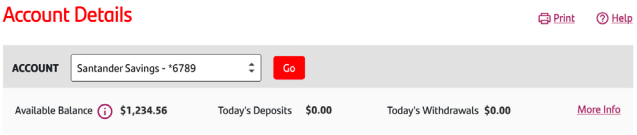

To find your routing number and account number in Santander Online Banking:

1 | Log in to Santander Online Banking using your credentials (User ID and Password). Remember, it's important to log out at the end of each banking session.

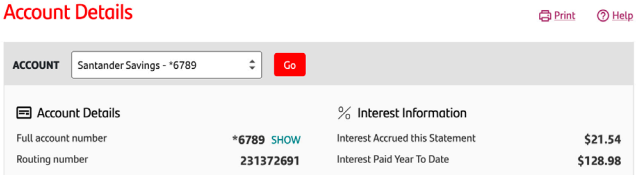

2 | Select your Santander account from the overview screen.

3 | From the Account Details page, click More Info.

4 | You'll find both your routing number and account number there. Select Show to reveal your full account number.

5 | Provide your depositor with your routing number, account number, and the amount you'd like deposited from each payment into your Santander account.

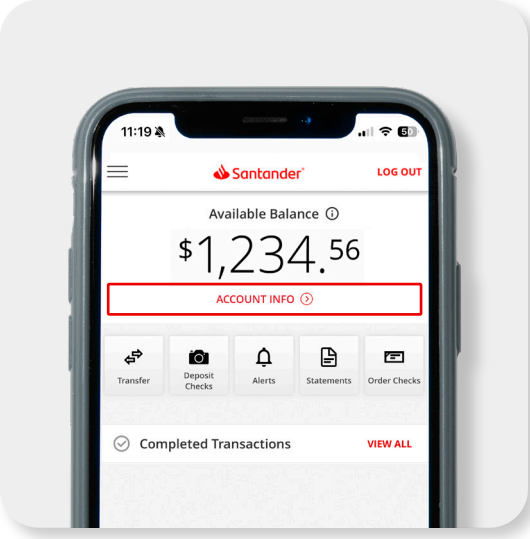

To find your routing number and account number in your Santander Mobile App:

1 | Open the Santander Mobile Banking App and log in using your credentials (User ID and Password). Remember, it's important to log out at the end of each banking session.

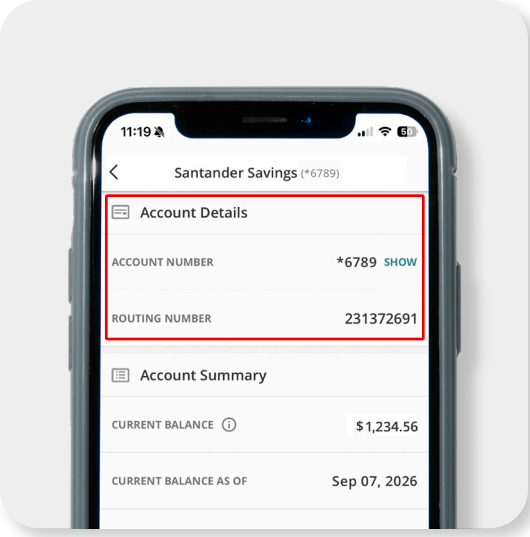

2 | Select your Santander account from the overview screen.

3 | Click the quick link: Account Info.

4 | You'll find both your routing number and account number there. Select Show to reveal your full account number.

5 | Provide your depositor with your routing number, account number, and the amount you'd like deposited from each payment into your Santander account.

Success. It's done.

You can now start receiving direct deposits to your Santander account.

Download the Mobile App.
