Treasurer's Current Account

Key Facts Document (including Specific Conditions and Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS) Information sheet & Exclusions List)

Effective from 28 April 2026

The table below sets out specific conditions for your account. These conditions apply as well as the general terms.

Eligibility	You can have this account if you're 18 or over and live in the UK and your organisation: <ul style="list-style-type: none">◦ Is a not-for-profit, such as a club, society or charity registered in the UK; and◦ Has an annual turnover of up to £250,000. You can only use the account for business purposes. It's not for personal use.
Fee for maintaining the account	The fee for this account is £4.99 per month. However, registered charities, charities exempt from registration and organisations with excepted charity status won't be charged a monthly fee for this account. We charge fees for certain payments and other services. You can find details of those fees and when we take them from your account in the general terms. We take fees you owe us from your account. Depending on the fee, we'll either do this at the time we make the payment or provide the service you asked for or we'll do this monthly. If you're charged a monthly fee for this account, we'll tell you about any monthly fee, and any other fees we charge monthly for services you've used, on your account during each monthly billing period. We'll then take those fees from your account 15 days after we tell you. If that day is a non-working day, we'll take them on the next working day.
Your interest and when we'll pay it	We don't pay interest on the account.
What's a monthly billing period?	It's usually the period up to and including the monthly anniversary of the date you opened your account. This period may vary if you opened your account at the end of a month. We'll confirm the relevant period when we tell you about the fees you owe. Your monthly billing period may be the same as your statements period, but it may be different if you change the date of your statement or how frequently you receive them. You can't change your monthly billing period.

Overdrafts	There's no arranged overdraft available on the account. We won't charge you any interest or fees if: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◦ you use an unarranged overdraft, ◦ we allow a payment despite lack of funds, or ◦ we refuse a payment due to a lack of funds. Helping you keep on top of your account If we have a mobile number for you and your account administrators or anyone else operating the account on your behalf, we'll send free text messages when: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◦ you make a payment that may take your account into an unarranged overdraft; or ◦ we refuse a payment due to lack of funds or intend to refuse a future payment due to lack of funds. If you currently receive these alerts by email, you'll continue to do so. You can also choose to get these alerts by email using Online or Mobile Banking, in branch or by phone. We may send alerts by push notification in Mobile Banking in future.
Managing the account	You can't access your account at Santander branch counters, so you can't pay money in or take it out. Otherwise, you can use your account in any of the other ways mentioned in the general terms. You can do this using Online or Mobile Banking or over the phone. You can also use cash machines and some Post Offices to do certain things (like pay money in, take it out or check your account balance). Unless your account was opened before 28 November 2014, you must have at least 2 (and a maximum of 3) authorised persons who will operate the account. Any one authorised person can make a payment or give instructions on the account. You can also nominate other colleagues to have access to your account to pay money in or take it out. We offer a range of cards to help with this. Ask us about these and we can help you choose the right one for you. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ◦ Debit card – this lets you make purchases, take money out at any cash machine and gives you full access to Telephone Banking. You can also pay in cash or cheques, check your balance and take out money at Post Offices and Santander cash machines. ◦ Operator card – this only lets you pay in cash or cheques and check your balance at Santander cash machines. ◦ Cash deposit card – this lets you pay in cash at a Post Office only. ◦ Change giving card – this lets you exchange notes for coins at a Post Office only.
Cash Withdrawals	You have free cash withdrawals from Santander cash machines.

Statements	We'll send you a statement each month. Call us if you want to change your statement date.
If you change your mind	Tell us if you change your mind We won't charge you for cancelling your account - even if you do so outside the 'cancellation period'. Your cancellation period is 14 days long, and it starts the day after we've confirmed your account is open. If you do this, we'll return your money. We'll do this as soon as we can (and within 30 days from when you tell us). If your account is overdrawn, you'll need to repay everything you owe straight away.

The following information does not form part of our agreement with you

How we provide our services

We don't give advice

Unless we tell you otherwise, we won't give you financial advice as part of the services we provide you. However, we will give you information to help you make decisions about your finances.

Put simply

We won't give you advice to help you decide if a product is right for you. We'll give you information to help you make decisions.

Our regulatory status

We're authorised and regulated by the Prudential Regulation Authority (PRA) and also regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA). Our Financial Services Register number is 106054. You can check this on the Financial Services Register by visiting the FCA's website, fca.org.uk/register

We're a member of the Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS) – ask for a leaflet in branch for more information.

Put simply

We're authorised and regulated by the Prudential Regulation Authority and also regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority. We're also a member of the Financial Services Compensation Scheme.

We keep your information confidential

We'll keep the information you give us confidential in line with our policies and the regulations we need to follow. On joint applications your information may be shared with the other applicant, and you must have their permission if you provide their information to us. We may share some information about you with other companies in the Santander Group, our service providers and regulators, the courts, and the Financial Ombudsman Service for particular purposes.

You can find more on how we use your information, who we share it with, and your data protection rights in our Data Protection Statement. You can also check the 'Using My Personal Data' booklet – visit our website or ask us for a copy.

Put simply

The information you give us is treated confidentially and in line with data protection legislation and our Data Protection Statement. For more information on your data protection rights you can ask for a copy of the 'Using My Personal Data' booklet.

We'll need to do some credit and other checks on you

If you apply for a credit product with us, for example a credit card, a loan or current account that offers an overdraft, we'll carry out a search of your credit file (and your Business credit file if you apply for a Business product) with a credit reference agency before we decide to lend money to you. This search, including details about your application, will be recorded on your credit file. For a short period, this may affect your ability to get credit elsewhere. If you make a joint application, the credit reference agencies will 'link' your records together. We'll look at these results and decide if it's suitable to open the account and offer credit where requested. If it's not, we'll decline your application and let you know. If we give you a credit card, a loan or a bank account, we'll also share information with credit reference agencies about how you manage your account.

You can find more information in the 'About your application and credit scoring' leaflet available on our website.

Put simply

If you apply for a credit product, we will carry out a credit search to make a decision on your application and this will be recorded on your credit file (and your business credit file if you apply for a business product). Records will be linked together on joint applications.

Our rights under our agreement with you

The general terms and conditions set out our relationship with you and explain how your account will operate. Under those terms, we have a number of rights that you should be aware of. These include:

- Refusing or delaying payments
 - We can refuse to make a payment from your account or to accept a payment into your account for various reasons. These are set out in the general terms and include a number of reasons related to concerns about possible scams, fraud or the security of your account.
 - We can also delay payments while we investigate. This could mean you're late in paying someone you need to pay.
 - If we remain concerned, we may refuse to make the payment even if you have checked it and confirmed you want it to go ahead.
- Blocking access to your account
 - We can block access to your account for various reasons, including if we have concerns about security or fraud. We can also block access if you don't give us information we need from you.
 - We may retain money in your account and not pay it to you in some situations. We'll only do this if another person claims that the money belongs to them or you don't address any concerns we have about the origin of the money.
 - We can block a third party provider from accessing your account if we think they don't have consent or are acting fraudulently.
- Taking money out of your account
 - We can take money out of your account in a number of situations set out in the general terms.
 - We can do this if we paid you the money by mistake or if we think you received the money from someone else by mistake and we're asked to return it.
 - We can also do it if we paid you a refund and then find out you weren't entitled to it.
 - We can take money from your account to repay amounts you owe us or another Santander company.
- Changing or ending the agreement
 - We can change the interest rate (unless it's fixed), fees or other terms at any time by giving you notice. The reasons when we can do this are set out in the general terms.
 - We can end this agreement immediately for various reasons set out in the general terms, including if you break the agreement, are abusive to our staff or misuse your account.
 - We may ask you to repay any overdraft you have immediately at any time but we'll usually give you notice.'

Financial Services Compensation Scheme (FSCS) Information Sheet

If Santander UK plc should go into insolvency, eligible deposits are protected by the Financial Services Compensation Scheme ('FSCS') and would be repaid up to £120,000 by the Deposit Guarantee Scheme.

Limit of protection

£120,000 per depositor, per bank

cahoot, Santander Business and Santander Corporate & Commercial are all trading names of Santander UK plc.

All eligible deposits at the same bank, building society or credit union are added up to determine the coverage level.

For example, if you hold a savings account with £80,000 and a current account with £50,000, FSCS will pay you £120,000 and you may lose £10,000.

So the FSCS can pay you promptly, please make sure we have your up-to-date contact details, including your email address.

If you have a joint account with other people

For joint accounts, the limit of £120,000 applies to each depositor separately. For example, if there are 2 account holders, you'll each be entitled to £120,000 protection, giving a total of £240,000.

Your small business, limited company or charity will need to meet certain eligibility criteria to claim compensation with the FSCS. We assess eligibility on a case-by-case basis and it varies for different types of claim. Legal status will affect eligibility, e.g. if you're an individual or incorporated entity (such as a corporation or limited partnership).

Charitable status is never relevant to eligibility. To check if you're protected visit fscs.org.uk/making-a-claim/claims-process/small-business

Temporary high balances

If you have a 'temporary high balance' you might be entitled to more than £120,000 protection for 6 months from when the amount was first deposited or legally transferred. Temporary high balances are deposits connected with certain events, including:

- (a) transactions relating to the purchase and sale of your main home
- (b) major life events such as death, your marriage or civil partnership, divorce, retirement, redundancy, disability, or incapacity
- (c) compensation for personal injuries or wrongful conviction.

How the FSCS will pay you

The FSCS will typically return deposits within 7 business days, by cheque or electronic payment into an alternative account. Payments may take longer in exceptional circumstances. For example, if there's a temporary high balance, or the deposit is held on behalf of underlying beneficiaries.

FSCS exclusions list

As set out in the Depositor Protection Information Sheet, deposits held by individuals and businesses will be generally eligible for FSCS protection up to the compensation limit. However, some exclusions do apply. Details of the most common exclusions are set out below. For full details of the exclusions, please see the Depositor Protection Part of the PRA Rulebook or fscs.org.uk

A deposit is excluded from protection if it meets any of the following criteria.

(1) The depositor is one of the following:

- credit institution
- financial institution
- investment firm
- insurance undertaking
- reinsurance undertaking
- collective investment undertaking
- pension or retirement fund
- public authority, other than a small local authority.

Note that:

- a) deposits held on behalf of underlying beneficiaries who are eligible for FSCS protection aren't excluded
 - b) personal pension schemes, stakeholder pension schemes or occupational pension schemes for micro, small and medium sized companies aren't excluded.
- (2) Deposits not held at a UK establishment of a bank, building society or credit union. Or, in the case of a bank, building society or credit union incorporated in the UK, it isn't held at an establishment in Gibraltar.
- (3) Deposits linked to money laundering. For example, it's transferred from an account held by someone who's been convicted of money laundering.
